Time with the Lord

Listening to God and talking to God, day by day.

- Begin by selecting a time—about 20 minutes when you can realistically expect to have some time alone.
- Read the chapters indicated by month and date.
- Ask God to “speak” as you read His Word.
- While reading, something may make an impression on you. Make a note of it in a small notebook or memo pad.
- Talk back to God. The Bible calls that kind of talking back “prayer.”
- Read day by day. Respond to God by praying or “talking back.”
- If you miss a day or so, just pick up on the proper day. Don’t feel guilty about missing. You will probably feel “empty” or “hungry.” The Lord will be there, waiting for you, eager to speak to you and listen to you.

What the Bible Says About the Bible

The holy Scriptures are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work. II Timothy 3:15-17

Bible Reading

can be compared to flying over a city in an airplane. We see the general layout and landmarks. It is meant to be fun and refreshing. It should be uplifting - not weighing you down with deep theological concepts. Leave that for Bible Study which is more exacting and technical. As we read with an open heart to God, our thoughts, desires and motivations are purified.
